Although born in Newport News, Virginia, Jeffery Harrison-Pressey was a true son of the country life of High Point, North Carolina, where he attended Southwest High School. Raised there from a youth, he grew to find his life calling as an entrepreneur. Genuinely a self-made man, he started a grass cutting business with his brothers at 10 years of age. He worked his way up to management for a Wendy's and a gas station in NC.

He loved fishing, something his father taught him. Although he didn't have any children, he loved, cared for and treated his nieces as his own. He was a jokester, always making you laugh. He would make you smile about things that might make you cry or worry..he would hold both hands in the air and shake them both and say, "It's alright, it's alright, it's alright!" One of his many sayings we will miss at family events!

He is preceded in death by his grandmothers, Joyce Benice Pressey and Cynthia Harrison Curbs, as well as his grandfathers, Larry Curbs and Ulysses Dove Jr. He is survived by his special and long time friend, Trent, his mother, Felicia Renee' Collins (Thomas) of Florida, his father, Jeffery Otis Harrison (Patrice), his 4 sisters, Janell Evans (VA), Brittany Harrison (Mike) (NC), Danielle Lashelle Renee' Pressey (FL), Desire Collins (VA), and his 4 brothers, Jalon M. Harrison-Pressey (T'osha) (NC), Cortez D. Harrison-Pressey (FL), Thomas Collins III and Kyree Collins (VA). He is also survived by his 2 aunts, Latricia M. Pressey-White (VA) and Valerie (VA) and his uncles, Ulysses Darnell Pressey (Tamesha) (VA), Antonio Damod Pressey (VA), Terry Harrison (VA) and James Collins (Shelly) (FL).

“ Good Morning my Handsome chocolate King! Today makes 6 months since you been in Heaven time has flew but the days have been so hard. Everyday I still wake up wishing and hoping and praying this could be a dream. I realize it's not when I don't receive your calls and texts. I almost called your phone several times and then I realize I can't and I breakdown and cry each time. I miss you more than life itself. I love you so much baby and I just need you so bad baby. I have so many dreams about you and it seems so real and you always tell me how much you love me and I'm your wife and your my husband. We be having so much fun and when I wake up i can feel your spirit and energy in the room and touching me which is so real. I know you are still with me everyday you still show me signs which I appreciate you for that. I still talk to you outloud because I know you can hear me and I still write to you in my our journal everyday. Your my heartbeat still and my bestfriend and it still will never change. “ Baby I Love you and Miss you so much. I remember when we was at the house sitting on the couch. You got up and said you had a surprise for and you wanted me to close my eyes. So I closed my eyes and you took my hand to touch the surprise and I was scared because I know you was always playing tricks on me lol. You said it's not a trick and i opened my eyes and you were trying to make me stick my hand in the bowl of worms. I jumped up screaming and running and you chased me in the bathroom laughing at me lol. That was such a good memory we always laughed about it when we talked about it together. I love you and I miss you like crazy my life has not been the same since you left. I know your watching over me my handsome king and your wifey got you always in my heart baby.
