

Jhaysonn Pathak

March 15, 1985 - July 13, 2018

Jhaysonn was a unique individual. He lived his life in his own way, loved Jesus, and loved every person he knew. No matter your circumstance in life Jhaysonn was more than willing to listen, give a hand, or even talk a rather serious and inspiring conversation. His wisdom surpassed us, taught us to be patient and kind to others, and to be still - to listen to the quiet and wait for the truth. James 1:19

Jhaysonn's music was like candy; it came in many forms - beautiful and calming classical, rock that made you get up and move, digital creations that were inspiring and calculating and moving. His collaboration with friends and fellow musicians will be sorely missed.

Jhaysonn's to do list was a list of friends and family and what he could do to be a source of encouragement. If Jhaysonn inspired you in any way, with his value of patience and kindness, please share your story and help make a better caring world. Where everyone is heard and no one gains at the expense of someone else. This is our son, brother, your friend - Carry his legacy forward wherever you go.

Luke 7:23: Blessed is anyone who does not stumble on account of me. His illness did not stop him from believing but gave him confirmation that God knew his circumstance.

Jhaysonn's Mother, Theresa, Father Kieron, and Brother Matthew (Leilani). Thank you for attending Services for Jhaysonn. Graveside Funeral, July 20, 2018 - Greenlawn Cemetery 4300 Beach Blvd, Jax FL 32207

“ It has been a while since Jhaysonn left us. No matter tho. Everyday I visit with him while transcribing his journals and his lyrics. I remember when we went to a Luthier on Beach Blvd. to have some adjustments made to his Warrior guitar. He was so focused on a certain sound and while demonstrating his chops, the Luthier exclaims, "Wow, that's incredible", while referring to his playing. I kick myself for not recording him with my phone that day. Jhaysonn was tremendoum flying up and down the neck of his most prized guitar with such passion and literally "shredding" it as any premier guitarist would. He put out a sound that blew everyone away in the store.

What my boys have gone through these past couple years is the hardest thing I have ever gone through in my life.

God is good though. He confirms each day that He has one in Heaven and the other in His heart too.

Blessings, Ron.
