“ We worked together at the Jewish Federation. You were one of my best friends. You called me red and I called you plankton. I talked to you in January and was planning to visit you. Love and prayers to your family!

“ My ride or die bestie.... I am still at a loss for words. You leaving us all...so quickly... so suddenly, hurts so much. We have shared so many fun times, so many telephone calls that go on for hours, so much laughter, and so much of life. I know that there is a gathering in heaven right now and that you are finally out of pain. I am smiling thinking of all the things you are doing right this minute and I look forward to seeing you again.
Until then, I will just keep on talking to you like you are sitting here with me.....
